

Health & Safety Training Series in May

Climate Change Resiliency and Chemical Safety, Monday, May 10, 12:30-3:30 p.m.

This no-cost, 3-hour virtual zoom course for companies, public emergency responders, non-profit institutions, and community organizations addresses industrial, commercial, non-profit institutional, and public works chemical safety during extreme weather events, developing plans for such emergencies, and building resiliency within companies, institutions, organizations, and communities.

CLICK HERE to register for the course.

Disaster Preparedness for Organizations, Monday, May 17, 12:30-3:30 p.m.

This no-cost, 3-hour virtual zoom course for public sector and municipal organizations focuses on decreasing the risk of worker and community resident injury and illness in responding to severe weather events, such as storms and floods, and planning next steps in preparing for disasters in the participants' own work settings as well as responding in mutual aid to other communities.

CLICK HERE to register for the course.

Opioids in the Workplace, Monday, May 24 and Thursday 27, 12:30-3:30 p.m.

This no-cost, 3-hour virtual zoom course, intended for workers and employers who may be impacted by the opioid crisis, provides evidence-based information and addresses workplace risk factors and solutions for opioid use, misuse, and addiction.

CLICK HERE to register for the May 24 course. CLICK HERE to register for the May 27 course.

The New England Consortium, based UMass Lowell, is a worker health and safety training program that has been delivering training since 1987 in hazardous materials operations, emergency response, infectious disease preparedness, disaster preparedness, and general workplace health and safety.

For further information and updates contact Thomas_Estabrook@uml.edu.

This training is supported by the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences of the National Institutes of Health under Award Number U45ES006172.