A.I.M. Mutual Elects Daniel A. Landers President & Chief Executive Officer

BURLINGTON, Mass. – The A.I.M. Mutual Insurance Companies’ Board of Directors has elected Daniel A. Landers as President & Chief Executive Officer effective May 1, 2022. The announcement came following the 33rd Annual Meeting of the Members of A.I.M. Mutual Insurance Company.

“We are very pleased to name Dan as our President and CEO,” said John Myers, Chairman of the Board. “Under Dan’s direction, we are confident A.I.M. Mutual will remain an industry leader in the workers’ compensation space and the preferred carrier for thousands of employers throughout New England.”

Dan Landers succeeds Michael E. Standing, who passed away in October.

Dan brings more than 30 years of workers’ compensation insurance experience to the role. Previously, he had been Vice President & Chief Operating Officer for A.I.M. Mutual, responsible for workers’ compensation insurance operations, agency management and strategic planning. In addition, he has held positions as Vice President of Sales & Marketing, Director of Field Operations, Director of Marketing, and Regional Manager. Prior to joining A.I.M. Mutual
