

Health & Safety Training

Opioids and the Workplace

Monday, May 23, 2022, 9:00 a.m. –
12:00 noon

This 3-Hour, no-cost, virtual course addresses the impact of opioid use disorder in the workplace, and various forms of prevention, including workplace injury prevention as well as workplace and organizational support programs for those experiencing substance use disorder. The course is intended for workers, employers, and organizations who may be impacted by the opioid crisis.

Presenters are from TNEC and the City of Lowell Department of Health.

The course includes case studies, breakout group activities, and large group discussion. To register, go to this link:

<https://t nec.hazready.com/CourseCatalog?friendlyId=EV2159>

Climate Change, Chemical Safety, and Resilience

Wednesday, May 25, 2022, 9:00 a.m. –
12:00 noon

This 3-Hour, no-cost, virtual course includes the intensifying climate crisis extreme weather events and chemical safety in companies and communities; state and federal requirements for hazardous materials; emergency planning (including risk management plans); and building resilience within communities and organizations and at the individual level. This course is intended for municipal organizations, companies, public emergency responders, non-profit institutions, and community organizations.

Presenters are from TNEC and the Massachusetts Office of Technical Assistance.

The course includes case studies, breakout group activities, and large group discussion.

To register, go to this link:

<https://t nec.hazready.com/CourseCatalog?friendlyId=EV2154>

For questions about these courses, please contact Thomas Estabrook.

This training is supported by the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences of the National Institute of Health under Award Number U45ES006172.

